

REPORT OF THE “NO NATAK” STREET PLAY COMPETITION

Date of Event :	October 1 st , 2016
Name of Event :	“NO NATAK” Street Play Competition
Organised by :	Delhi State Legal Services Authority in coordination with Delhi Police (South District)
Venue :	Select City Walk Mall, Saket
No. of students participated :	10

“NO NATAK” street play competition was organized by Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLISA) in Select City Walk Mall, Saket on 1st

October, 2016 from 3:00 pm to 7:00 pm with a vision to highlight variety of issues ranging from legal aid, domestic violence, female feticide, discrimination on the basis of gender, manual scavenging etc. A team “Tarkash” sent by Legal Aid Society from Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law,

University of Delhi participated in the said competition and performed the play, “Kyun hain hum khaamosh?” which highlighted the evils of patriarchal mindset of our society and other issues like Outraging the Modesty of Women, Post Marital Rape, Women Empowerment, Census

Ratio gap between men and women due to conservative thinking in our society. The team was awarded Second Prize for their best performance among various other law colleges present there and competing. Team Tarkash was immensely loved and

CAMPUS LAW CENTRE

Faculty of Law
University of Delhi

praised by the gathering including the Chief Guests present there. The prizes were distributed by Hon'ble Ms. Justice Indira Banerjee Judge, Delhi High Court, Executive Chairperson of Delhi State Legal Services Authority in presence of huge gathering attended by Ld. District Judges, Judicial Officers, Advocates, Paralegal Volunteers, Academicians and general public.

Report by:

Manav Malhotra

Campus Law Centre

Faculty of Law

Final year