

REPORT OF THE REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION

Campus law centre celebrated the 68th Republic Day with a Seminar on "Nationalism: Our identity" organised by the Students Union of CLC under the presidentship of Mr. Achint Kumar with the help of the Professor-in-charge of CLC, Professor (Dr.) Usha Tandon. Dignitaries who were present included one of the most successful and revolutionary lawyers of the Supreme Court of India Advocate Monika Arora, and currently the Senior Counsel for the Central Government in Delhi High Court, Advocate Umesh Sharma. Limca book record holder for rowing and covering 2400 kms in 36 days in Ganges, Colonel Diptanshu Chaudhury sent an audio message for the students.

Professor (Dr.) Usha Tandon suggested ways to eradicate negativity and bring positivity while speaking on Nationalism and in what ways we can show our love for our Nation. Professor pointed out the strengths we all have within us and how these can be used to achieve anything and everything beyond limits.

Advocate Monika Arora, who is also an alumnus of CLC, shared few of the incidences of her life to inspire every student to bring the change, she said "Lawyers have the most important tool to stop injustice and discrimination, that tool is Law itself". Saying that united we stand and divided we fall, she urged to stand for the nation whenever needed.

Advocate Umesh Sharma, expressed his concern over some anti-national elements trying to
