From the desk of the Professor–In-Charge

I, through this column, extend a warm welcome to the prospective recruiters of CLC for the upcoming campus placements, 2019-20.

With a legacy that spans over a period of 95 years, CLC is a deep-rooted institution that has proven its academic excellence in the legal field not only in India, but also in Asia. In consonance with the development and evolution in legal education worldwide, CLC encourages the supplementation of classroom teaching with extra and co- curricular activities. Further, it provides students with leadership opportunities and the space to develop a healthy team spirit. I take pride in stating that CLC is the alma mater of various reputed personalities who are now placed in top-ranking law firms, corporate houses and has also been instrumental in producing numerous cabinet ministers, senior advocates, Chief justices and law officers.

Journal "The Campus Law Centre Student Law Review", which is the result of the sheer hard work, the students put in, speaks volumes about their research and writing capabilities. Our students, with their strong foundation of conceptual understanding of legal principles and with practical exposure through internships in different realms, have always proven to be valuable assets in whatever capacity they have been recruited in the past.

Looking forward to welcome you at Campus Law Centre.

From the Desk of the Teacher Convener

Intellectual and professional prowess resonates from an astute and a dynamic education. A student is a reflection of his alma mater. To gauge the success of legal education one need only to look at the alumnus.

The Campus Law Centre has proved its self-time and again as a center for excellence which has undoubtedly put it in the highest echelons of legal education. Our alumni are shining examples of how diverse the education they receive and how adaptable they are. We have produced Judges in the higher judiciary, advocates who have gone on to become renowned senior counsels, teachers, in-house lawyers, politicians and journalists, each of whom are at the very pinnacle of professional excellence.

In this day and age where legal education has transformed itself to a great magnitude and law has become a Profession of choice, rather than necessity, the CLC has kept abreast with international best practices to churn out well rounded students who are ready to take on the world and will be an asset to any organization. I wish the batch of 2020 the very best as they take up the mantle, as ambassadors of this august institution.

CAMPUS LAW CENTRE

Established in 1924, Campus Law Centre (CLC) began as the morning classes for Faculty of Law, University of Delhi. CLC offers three-year LL.B. courses to graduates and is one of the oldest and most prestigious institutions.

Noting the growing reputation and popularity of full-time day classes, it was given a distinct identity and was renamed as CLC in 1975 and Faculty of Law was to administer LL.M. and Ph.D. Programmes. A full time Professor was appointed as Professor-In-Charge to run CLC independently. Professor (Dr.) Lotika Sarkar was its first Professor-In-Charge. Professor (Dr.) Raman Mittal, who presently occupies this position is twenty-fifth Professor-In-Charge of CLC.

In its 95-year legacy, CLC has maintained its reputation of producing excellent lawyers, academicians and judges. The notable Alumni of Campus Law Centre have been serving the Nation as Union Cabinet Ministers, Chief Justice and Judges of The Supreme Court of India, Judges and successful advocates practicing in various courts as well as lawyers in the private sector.

The institution has endeavoured to adapt to the changing demands of legal education, responding by introducing not only new subjects and concepts but also adapting to socially more relevant teaching.

By virtue of offering the three-year law degree, CLC attracts a very illustrious and bright minded student population each year. The student body at the institution is one of the most diverse at law colleges, not only multi-cultural and multi-lingual but also, having different backgrounds ranging from engineers to arts and even finance graduates and even students already holding multiple degrees. It is a deep-rooted legal institution of par excellence having a glorious past and a bright future ahead.

Qualitative teaching, moot-court competitions, campus placements, legal-aid services, regular discussions, and illustrious alumni are some of the features, which have established CLC as a Centre of Excellence. Apart from encouraging discussions and participation, CLC has focused on 'case-study' based teaching methodology, allowing the students to inculcate a deep understanding of theoretical legal knowledge along with the understanding of case-laws. Along with academics, CLC offers many co-curricular and extra-curricular activities to the students through societies. The four major facilitators for this purpose are – Moot Court Society, Legal Aid Society, Debates and Discussion Society and the Placement Assistance Council.

LEGAL AID SOCIETY

The LAS has a huge member base to incorporate the practical element of the legal field along with classroom studies.

It aims at effectively securing the rights of children, women, the poor and the marginalized.

The society has a long-standing association with the Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLSA) and has been conducting various legal awareness drives in the rural and backward regions of Delhi.

The DSLSA also runs a Legal Aid Clinic, where volunteers help the Authority's lawyers to resolve legal and any other authority related issue of clients who visit the clinic. Further, the Legal Aid Society aides the State Authority in training Para Legal Volunteers, so as to help the cause of Legal Aid.

MOOT COURT SOCIETY

The MCS is the oldest society of the Campus Law Centre. The MCS aims to help students acquire the skills of research, advocacy and critical thinking.

It organizes two internal moot court competitions yearly - The Common Induction Moot and The Fresher's Induction Moot. It trains its qualified members, holds internal rounds to select teams for participation in national and international moots.

The MCS also organizes the prestigious international K.K. Luthra Memorial Moot Court Competition.

SOCIETIES

CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY

The CDS visions to integrate law and art to fuel development of students. It aims at inculcating cultural environment in campus by encouraging student's interaction and participation through a medium of creative art and literary curriculum.

DEBATES AND DISCUSSIONS SOCIETY

The DDS has been formed for encouraging critical thinking and providing the students a platform to debate and discuss ideas.

To promote a culture of free and independent thought, the DDS seeks to hold discussions on contemporary legal issues as well as course-related topics by organizing weekly seminars and regularly inviting legal luminaries to enlighten Campus Law Centre's budding lawyers.

At the society's core is a desire to inculcate an appreciation for the art of public speaking as well as reasoned and coherent inquest into legal matters.

The Society in the year 2018 has organized various initiatives which include cultural showcase and talent hunt, regularly organizes guest lecturers to have interactive and brain storming sessions among the students.

In addition to this, the society has also organized Art exhibitions, cause based projects and creative writing competitions to broaden the intellectual horizon of Campus Law Centre's budding lawyers.

Student Members
Placement Assistance Council

The Placement Assistance Council is a student run volunteer body officially designated with the responsibility of facilitating the procedure of recruitment for the final year students.

The Placement Assistance Council creates a framework within which the representatives of various organizations in the legal industry can interact with the final year students for the purpose of recruitment by encouraging the recruiters to give important details about the profile of their respective organization to the interested students. This will enable us to evaluate their interest in the company and thus identify an appropriate fit.
