NOTICE

Prevention of Defacement of Property of Campus Law Centre

It is being found that the students have affixed and pasted posters, bills and hoardings at various places of the Campus Law Centre building including main gate, corridors and classrooms at the each floor.

The Students have put their own name or names with the slight variation in their spelling. In such a situation the mis-spelt name or name with the variation shall be considered to be the correct name of the student concerned.

This is being informed to all the students that they should refrain from defacing the Campus property by all means. If anyone has pasted or affixed bills, hoarding, posters etc., it is requested and advised to immediately remove the same, otherwise strict action may be taken as per law including relevant NGT orders, the Delhi Prevention of Defacement of Property Act, 2007 and the order of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court in W.P. (C) No.7824/2017 titled as Prashant Manchanda Case Vs Union of India & Ors. (Defacement Case).
