

COURTS OF THE LIVING COMPETITION

raising the bar for coexistence

A national competition for
law students to engage with real ecological conflicts.

Registrations open on 2nd September 2026.

COURTS
of the
LIVING

NALSAR
UNIVERSITY OF LAW
HYDERABAD

aga AGRAHAR mi

The Invitation

What would it
mean to reimagine
the courtroom from
the perspective of
more-than-human lives?

Inviting law students from across the country
to participate in reshaping legal paradigms so that law can create the conditions for all life
to flourish.

The Timeline

2nd to 22nd Sept
2026

Stage 1:

Registrations

Applications open for all law students across India.

15th Oct
2026

Stage 2:

Build field dossier

50 Invited teams map living conflicts of coexistence.

End Dec
2026

Stage 3:

Problem statement release

Top 16 teams receive the problem statement and draft written submissions.

End Feb
2027

Stage 4:

In-person finals

Top 16 teams convene
for in-person arguments.

The Awards

Courts of the Living Excellence Prize

The winning team
receives ₹1,00,000.

The runner-up team
receives ₹50,000.

Damrus Gomnons Awards

Selected teams receive
up to ₹30,000 to create
student-led initiatives
within their law schools.

Living Practice Awards

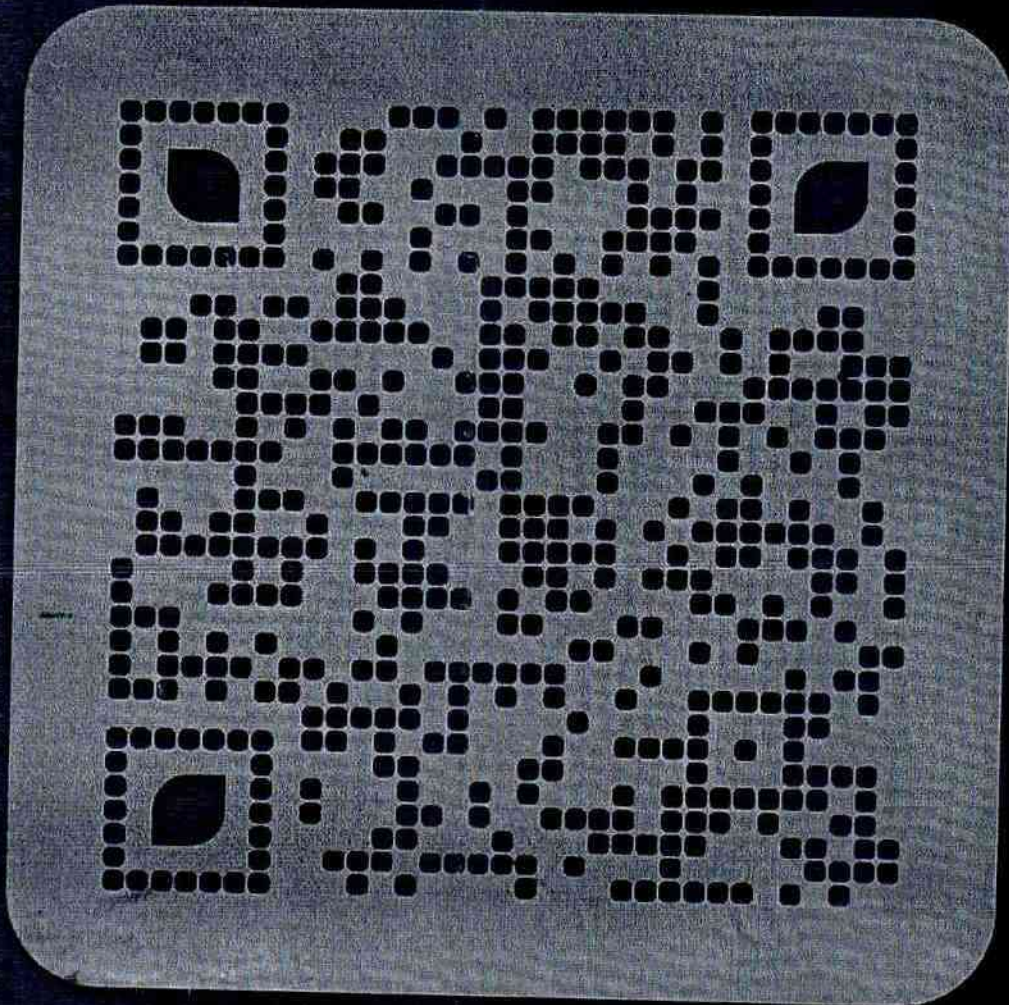

Selected teams receive
up to ₹30,000 to carry
field insights into specific place-based action.

Courts of the Living Emerging Practitioners

Selected students receive 6 months of
pathway mapping,
curated introductions,
mentorship and wider
network access.

Apply Now!

Scan the QR code to register.

Last date: 22nd Sept 2026

In case of any queries, drop us a mail at:

isha@agami.in

COURTS OF THE LIVING COMPETITION

For more details, visit:

<https://www.courtsoftheliving.com/>

Apply Now!

Scan the QR code to register.

Last date: 22nd Sept 2026

In case of any queries, drop us a mail at:
isha@agami.in

COURTS OF THE LIVING COMPETITION

For more details, visit:

<https://www.courtsoftheliving.com/>