

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

FACULTY OF LAW- DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

As one of the country's oldest legal education institutions, the Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, not only has a distinguished history, but also the responsibility of being a leader in the field of legal education. On the cusp of its centennial, the faculty, through its newly formed FoL Development Committee, seeks to reinvigorate the institution's true spirit in the contemporary and dynamic legal world. The Committee is one of its kind, an inter-centre, faculty-student forum for taking up developmental issues and facilitating cooperation in order to contribute to the inclusive and strategic growth of the law faculty.

In addition to fulfilling its mandate, the committee, while being headed by the Dean, will also serve as an integrated platform for horizontal & vertical knowledge exchange among faculty members, working professionals from the alumni body, and current students from all three centres of law faculty.

Interested Alumni and students are hereby, invited to be the executive members of the committee. The online application form can be found here: tinyurl.com/FoLDCapplication Eligibility criteria: Apply if you consider yourself to be enterprising, creative, and a leader with exceptional multitasking abilities.

Application deadline: 11:59 PM, 15 MAY 2022

In case of any queries, mail us at: FoLDC@law.du.ac.in or reach out over WhatsApp to Mr. Vijay Pujari (7981778079)